WILL MAKE "ROME HOWL."

Many of Dallas most prominent business men have lined up to assist in promoting the proposed Negro Trade week.

The movement is to create an interest in the race's business world and to stir the populace to general action.

It has been said officially that Dallas has led in this particular and her efforts in fostering a previous trade week was the center of much comment. Newspapers alike were loud in praise of the venture made and in anticipation the business men expect to make "Rome Howl."

"COME TO ME BEFORE WINTER COMES TO YOU" IS THE LANGUAGE OF A TEXT BY DR. L. K. WILLIAMS.

A large and appreciative congregation greeted the Rev. Dr. L. K. Williams at Macedonia Baptist church Sunday morning and at evening services.

Apparently the Chicagoan was at his best at night service having selected for a text "Come to me before Winter Comes." The subject from all indications revealed the soul of the speaker and in each paragraph the distinguished minister poured upon the hearts of Christianity the true logic of "Come now" while the blood runs warm in your veins, and come to me before winter comes. Many of the unsaved made haste after the conclusion of the sermon when Dr. E. Arlington Kilson, pastor, opened the doors of the church to those desiring to join.

A goodly number was accepted for full membership, several under watch care and equally as many for baptism. Dr. Williams was formerly pastor of Macedonia Baptist church and is familiar figure in the Baptist family throughout the country and is now pastoring Metropolitan Baptist church, one of the largest churches in the world, located at Chicago, Ill.

He preached his farewell sermon Monday night. Rev. Williams was at one time Editor of The Dallas Express.

AUTHORIZE NEW NEGRO PARK.

Mayor Seeks Better Films for Free Movies.

Negro of South Dallas will have a new park in a few weeks.

The Park Board Tuesday decided to convert into a Negro park the block of land bounded by Warren, Meadows, Myers and Washington streets. The cost of the work will be $10,000.

The block is just across the Santa Fe tracks from the white residence section. Nearly all the white property owners in the vicinity have agreed to establishment of the park, Mayor Wozencraft said.

The Park Board will confer with the Motion Picture Board of Appeals to see whether the city can get more and better films to show at city parks.

Mayor Wozencraft told the board Tuesday that he wants more amusement for the people at the parks.

At present advertising slides are shown with the show and the compensation from these pays for the films.

By getting the films free, the advertising slides could be discontinued. Mayor Wozencraft expressed himself against using parks too freely as an advertising medium.

THANKS.

Words are inadequate to express the kindness and sympathy shown to me by my friends and neighbors during the illness of my mother, Mrs. Annie House, who departed this life October 9th, 1919, and for the beautiful floral offerings. May God's choicest blessings abide with them wherever they may go.

GROUND BROKEN FOR FOUNDATION OF NEW ST. JAMES.

Excavating the foundation of the new St. James (A. M. E.) church has commenced. One noticeable feature of the large corps of Colored workmen under their own contractors.

The new structure according to plans and specifications calls for a $20,000 structure and will be modern in every detail.

Sunday school rooms, study halls, library facilities, organization rooms all are provided. The auditorium will be 86x45 feet. Rev. Abington, the progressive pastor is on the job at all times. The new church will be located on Good and Florence streets.

THE CHURCH OF GOD.

The rains retarded our success. Services were good all day. Sunday school at the usual hour. Bro. Willie Moss acting Supt. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Bryant, being absent from the city. Rev. M. E. Webb and Rev. Wm. Jordan filled his place. They seemed to obey the command freely. Rev. Webb spoke from Job 28-7 there is a path which no fowl knoweth and which the vultures' eye hath not seen. He gave much light on the path which had been desired for many years. Bible literary every Monday night, both Saints and Sinners invited, any Biblical questions asked answered by the Bible.

SYNCOATED BAND OFFERS UNIQUE PROGRAM AT FAIR.

The American Syncoated Orchestra of skinned musical organization extent, is opening the Coliseum program at the Victory Fair at Dallas each afternoon and evening.

Will Marion Cook and George Edmund Duff are the directors. Duff was the leader of the famous Black Devils' Band overseas that played for the French Generals Foch and Matin, and for General Pershing at Brest. After hearing them play, General Pershing is reported to have said, "Give me jazz," in referring to the program they had given. Duff began his career as leader with Primrose & West Minstrels.

However, the American Syncoated Orchestra does not confine itself to jazz music. The program runs all the gamut of renditions up to the highest classical selections by the master composers. Popular numbers are interspersed with Negro spirituals, folk songs and many other classes of music, both instrumental and vocal. The full orchestra gives way to the soloist, the quartet or the voices.

The orchestra is a band of exceptionally schooled musicians, and whatever they offer has some peculiar, unique personality that seems a part of no other like band, according to the testimony of a musical expert who heard them.

Nothing is untouched by their keen native intelligence, and the musicianship is thoroughly refined. Even in its most humorous aspects it never becomes coarse.

Under the title, "American Music for Americans," the American Syncoated Orchestra is giving programs of which the following is a fair sample:

Orchestra and Singers—Rain Song Cook.

Trombone Solo—Characteristic William Dover.

Solo and Chorus—Mammy o' Mine Pinkard.

Orchestra Spirituals—Folk Lore Quartet or Excelsior Quartet.

Orchestra—Arabian Nights—Davis.

Tenor Solo—Mammy—Cook.

Drum Solo—Archie Bell.

Orchestra—Humoresque—Dvorak.

A Negro Sermon—Exhortation—Cook.

J. William Coleman.

Orchestra—Royal Garden Rag Williams.

Orchestra and Singers—Swing Along Cook.

WHERE ARE YOU DRIFTING?

A representative of The Dallas Express was informed by a prominent business man that a pastor of a certain church in the city was seen going into a Central avenue restaurant, operated by a foreigner to get himself a lunch. When he was surrounded by any number of first-class Negro restaurants. It is reasonable to excuse a man who is trying to save time, but time was not an item in this case; we were forced to ask ourselves the question where are we drifting?

LOCAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION GIVES SCHOLARSHIP TO HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

The Dallas Branch of Howard University Alumni Association met last Thursday night at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Frazier. In appreciation of the great work which the University is doing for the advancement of the Colored youth of this and other countries, and to show loyalty to the Alma Mater, the association pledged itself to give several scholarships to said institution. The first installment of Fifty Dollars will be sent to the University next month.

The following officers were elected for the year 1919-1920: Dr. R. T. Hamilton, president; Mrs. J. C. Frazier, vice-president; Miss Frederica Chase, recording secretary; Mr. J. T. Fox, treasurer; Miss Priscilla Tyler, corresponding secretary and Miss Ruth Mason, reporter.

ONE WEEK OF COLORED CARNIVAL.

After several days mixing with Jupiter Pluvius, Dallas citizens are taking in the Colored carnival now exhibiting on Elm street between Good and Crowder streets.

The attractions are many and varied and is void of the "old chestnut stuff" of the days of yore; everything new under the sun consisting of prize roping, ring-throwing, minstrels and many other features making up the life of a carnival.

Notwithstanding the rains of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of last week and of this week the affair has received a very liberal patronage. It is given under the auspices of the Business League and should receive the hearty endorsement of Dallas citizenship. Come out at least two nights.
